

Go ahead n' prove for me that love n' dedication aren't what you need

Go ahead n' sign your note of regret and nail it up with my broken heart Hang it on the barn door with those 5 or 6 hearts of mine that've been broken before

Write another note for Hallmark about let's just be friends

Say it in a way that makes it sound fresh Make me believe it might mean anything else but I don't really ever want to see you again
